

Coastal Weed Management Workshop

Hosted by SPRATS (Sea Spurge Remote Area TeamS), UTAS & NRM South

Friday 4 June 2010, 1pm - 5:30 pm,
University of Tasmania

Workshop aims:

- strategies for coastal weed management,
- effective use of volunteers,
- managing partnerships with land managers and other parties,
- performing effective weed management whilst minimising impacts to natural and cultural values.

Program

Volunteering for environmental management

Adventure weeding: the effective use of volunteers

Remote area weeding: SPRATS progress to date

Weeding on a smaller island Bob and Penny Tyson

Geoff Luscombe, SPRATS

Jon Marsden-Smedley, SPRATS

Friends of Deal Is

Challenges when performing coastal weed management

Weed identification and emerging weed threats

Minimising impacts to shore birds

Matt Baker, Tasmanian Herbarium

Eric Woehler, Birds Tasmania

Strategic issues related to coastal weed management

Australia-wide perspective

A land managers perspective

A regional approach to weed management

A regional approach to weed management

Tim Rudman, DPIPWE

Chris Arthur, PWS

Sandy Leighton, STCA

Greg Stewart, NRM North

Plenary session and key workshop outcomes

Kathleen Broderick, NRM South