

Wonderful Wetlands Weekend!

A free community event!

Saturday 2nd February 2019

Dodges Ferry Primary School 10am – 3pm

Our Wonderful Wetlands

- Free BBQ by Dodges Ferry Parents and Friends
- Free face painting and kids activities
- Food and coffee vans on site
- Stalls and activities with BirdLife Tasmania, Bonorong Sanctuary, National Waterbug Blitz, PWS Discovery Rangers, Landcare Tasmania, Wildseed Tasmania Nursery, Sustainability Learning Centre
- Free activities with local artists - screen printing, drawing, weaving

10:30-11:45	Fast and funky science talks covering topics such as Climate Change, Saltmarshes, Frogs, Threatened Species and more
12:00 noon	Welcome to Country and Official Opening
12:30 - 3:00	Live music program featuring Jodi & Jude, Warren Mason, Fred Pribac & Ross Smithard
2:00 - 2:30	Panel discussion with artists inspired by wetlands

Guided walks at Steeles Island

(Free bus departs & returns to school)

10:20 - 11:20	Saltmarshes
10:40 - 11:40	Aboriginal history
12:40 - 1:50	Birdlife
1:00 - 2:10	Saltmarshes
1:30 - 2:30	Birdlife

Guided walks around Okines

(Meet at school hall)

1:00 - 1:40	Frogs (Josie Stokes)
2:00 - 2:40	Aboriginal history (Josh Langford)
2:45 - 3:30	Climate Change (Jamie Kirkpatrick)

WANT MORE? Sunday 3rd February 2019 - Lauderdale

Join Derwent Estuary Program and Clarence City Council to learn about the Lauderdale Saltmarshes, and identify plants and birds that call Lauderdale home. Meet at the corner of North Terrace and South Arm Highway, Lauderdale @2:30pm

World
Wetlands Day
2 February 2019

www.facebook.com/sbcoastcare/

Wetlands and climate change